

MEET YOUR CAMP DIRECTORS

Geoff Braun

Geoff Braun has been the Head Volleyball Coach at Fredonia State for ten seasons (217-132). In 2008, the Blue Devils advanced to the DIII NCAA Sweet Sixteen and Braun earned SUNYAC Coach of the Year honors for the second consecutive year and for the third time in the last six years. During his tenure, the Blue Devils have had twenty-five all-conference athletes, including the SUNYAC West MVP twice and the SUNYAC Rookie of the Year on three occasions.

Braun is a graduate of SUNY Cortland, where he was a player/coach, and has been involved with volleyball in New York State through camps, clinics and clubs at all levels. He has taught volleyball to adults in his hometown of Hamburg, N.Y., as part of its Community Education program. He also serves as the director of the Fredonia State Volleyball Summer Camp.

Ladi Iya

Ladi Iya was named the University of Rochester's head women's volleyball coach in May, 2008. Iya was an assistant coach at her alma mater, the University of Evansville. She also served as assistant, then as the interim head coach at Nicholls State University in Thibodaux, LA. Following her time at Nicholls State, she was an assistant at the University at Buffalo. She was also a member of the Nigerian National Volleyball Team. She competed for Nigeria in the 2004 Olympic Qualifier for African Nations.

Iya has worked at a variety of volleyball camps. She was also the Director of Camp Operations of Summer Volleyball Camps while at the University at Buffalo.
